1. Living in a rural community offers unique challenges. What would you have to learn if your lifestyle changed?
2. Kate had a distinct déjà vu encounter. Have you experienced one, and what meaning did you assign to it?
3. Christian denominations come with distinct expectations for members of their church. Can you become a Christian without going to church? Or can you develop faith simply by having a personal relationship with him?
4. How did Kate put closure to her sordid past and feel pure again? Was it just the baptism?
5. In a beautiful mossy glen, Kate 'heard' God speaks to her in the forest. Why was she sure it was Spirit-words from God?
6. In a swirl of past romantic emotions, Kate wants to go out to a fishing resort and visit Mark. Do you think she makes the right choice?
7. Dave kept his distance from Kate and seemed to use her for childcare. Was he an honorable man, and why do you think so?
8. Kate believes in signs when they appear around her. Are they coincidental or real guidance from a Higher Intelligence?
9. Men are driven to succeed in the goals they set. We can resent their single-minded drive or be a helpmate and share the same dreams. But where do you set healthy boundaries?
10. Communication is usually not a man's strongest point. What proof did Kate have of Dave's love for her?
11. Kate found the courage to endure a multitude of hardships when moving out into the wilderness. Can your faith be activated as a source of power, and how can you grow it stronger?
